EXOTERIK

Don't Swallow – the debut album from the UK based female-fronted rock band Exoterik. Released October 2008.

OUT NOW!

The 11 track album is available to purchase on CD via www.exoterik.co.uk and is also available in a digital format from iTunes, Napster, eMusic and Rhapsody.

The album was recorded in both Finland and Latvia and features eleven tracks, eight of which were produced and mixed by John Fryer who has previously produced albums for Him, Cocteau Twins, Depeche Mode, Cradle of Filth and many more successful artists.

Alternative Magazine reviewed the album as;

"...a mature, strong release full of tracks imbued with melodic heaviness and an emotionally charged energy – 'Raping The Reverie' is simply majestic. Anneka's confident vocals are taking the lead on all the tracks and promise a strong stage presence. Very promising".

(Fabienne T, Alternative Magazine, Aug/Sep 2008, issue 11).

Grave Concerns E-zine urged people to;

"... 'listen' to this phenomenal album, that'll burn up your CD player and melt your eardrums into a puddle of sensational bliss".

(Lynda Dale MacLean, Grave Concerns (U.S. E-Zine), August 2008).

The single 'Are You Alive' was released in April 2008 as a precursor to the album and is currently available via the band's website and online stores.
